Treasures of the Iberian Northwest

This trip offers a wonderful overview of the best of Galicia and northern Portugal, including two wine regions of Galicia, the Vinho Verde region on the way to the wonderful Douro, the vibrant city of Porto, the bold wines of the Bairrada, finishing in the cosmopolitan capital of Lisbon. Magnificent scenery, great contrasts between wine styles and nationalities, Celtic Spain and five wine regions in nine days, this is always one of our favourite trips. What's not to love?

What's so special about Galicia and northern Portugal?

Galicia confounds those who think of Spain as flamenco and fighting bulls as much as the Douro and Minho surprise Algarve lovers. Misty valleys echo to soulful Celtic pipes and coasts as dramatic as the west of Ireland have sent hosts of emigrant Gallegos to the Americas. Fishing and wine predominate. Seafood in the rias (fjords) is Europe's best and the stunning wine terraces of Ribeira Sacra show winemaking at its most dramatic.

Northern Portugal is a throwback to days gone by, a world away from Algarve glitz and glamour in the south. Porto is a gem of a city, the clusters of atmospheric streets either side of the Douro retaining their long lived maritime soul whilst opening the door to the 21st century through fabulous restaurants and luxury hotels. The rural wine regions of the Bairrada, Dao and Vinho Verde offer food and wine experiences more closely tied to their origins than most places on the planet. The Douro is one of the greatest wine tourism destinations, the astonishing terraces overlooking the river now producing great red wines and ports.

Lisbon is one of Europe's great cities, a place on the rise and the base for Portuguese exploration from Vasco de Gama onwards, as well as being scenic and dramatic.

Above all though, the joy is in the small villages where grapes, unrecognisable to outsiders, produce wines of huge character, quality and individuality. If you want to discover the glories of godello, vinhao, merencia, albarino and the port grapes join the tour.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1 Friday 11 June. Meet in the foyer of the Hotel San Francisco, a converted 18th century convent in Santiago de Compostela for a guided walk through the historic town, including a visit to the cathedral that marks the end of the legendary Camino. Early evening Tapas dinner at Petiscos do Cardeal in the old town.

Day 2. Saturday 12 June Head south to the seaside wine region of the Rias Baixas for tasting at the beautiful Pazo de Señorans. Short drive to visit and lunch at Albamar. Xurxo Alba's wines are a great small producer expression of the albariño grape. There is a typical Galician o furancho style seafood lunch cooked by the family. Check in to the Parador in Baiona. Dinner at the hotel overlooking the bay.

Day 3. Sunday 13 June Visit and lunch at Adega Algueira, a high-class winery near the Sil canyons, where Fernando Gonzalez makes a range of excellent wines (from local varieties) that are highly rated by Parker. Lunch and then a river cruise down the Sil in the afternoon. Short walk to one of the chapels overlooking the river. Return to Santiago for a free evening.

Day 4. Monday 14 June Morning tour of the fortress and the site of the return landing of Columbus's Pintia. Visit the best wine producer in the vinho verde region, the charismatic Vasco Croft in his Aphros winery. After lunch, head south to the dramatic scenery of the Douro. Check in to the lovely Vintage House, overlooking the river at Pinhao. Tasting menu dinner at DOC, the best restaurant in the region.

Day 5. Tuesday 15 June Morning visit at Grahams's Quinta do Bomfim before visit and lunch at Quinta do Noval, one of port's greatest names and estates. Evening free.

Day 6. Wednesday 16 June. Visit to Quinta de Napolos, home to the famed family producer Niepoort. Walk through the vineyards before a buffet lunch on the terrace. Afternoon drive back to Porto stopping briefly at the Mateus Palace on the way. Check in to the majestic Yeatman Hotel, our base for the next 2 nights. Free evening.

October Day 7. Thursday 17 June Morning guided walk around Porto including a visit to the wonderful Factory House, followed by a Colheita tasting at Kopke, the oldest port wine house. Lunch is free before a late afternoon visit and tasting in the director's room at the beautifully located Graham's port lodge. Dinner in the Yeatman's 2-star Michelin restaurant, one of Portugal's very best.

Day 8. Friday 18 June Head south to the fairytale Bussaco Palace for a tasting of their rare wines and lunch. On to Lisbon and our hotel in the heart of town, the stylish CR7. Light evening tapas meal near the hotel.

Day 9. Saturday 19 June Walking tour through the heart of Lisbon to take in some of the stunning vistas from the Alfama district and other central landmarks. Free afternoon. Last night dinner at the wonderful Michelin star Fortaleza do Guincho in Cascais.

Day 10. Sunday 20 June After breakfast, end of tour.
