Wines, Gastronomy & Culture

Oct 28 - 4 Nov, 2018

What to expect

This seven day tour offers a gourmet overview of central and southern Spain, allowing you to see, taste and breathe the wonders the country has to offer. We diverse landscapes in Castile and Leon, Extremadura and Andalucia, beginning and ending in Madrid.

The trip is hosted by Joanna Wivell whose insider knowledge offers an inside track on how to taste the very best of Spain, underpinned by many years uncovering the heart and soul of Iberia.

The love of wine, and the stories surrounding it, is one of the key elements of this trip. We experience tastings of top class wines from established winemakers as well as visits to what are considered the best new wineries in the region.

Trip Itinerary

Start in Palacio de Tepa in Madrid.

Day 1. Gourmet Tapas Tour. The route takes us through the bustling streets of the historic centre as we visit both the classic and the new wave Madrid tapas bars, introducing a range of wines and dishes from across Spain combining great tapas with the cultural insight of tapas hopping, giving an overview to the Spanish culture and an introduction to Madrid.

Day 2. Head for the medieval walled town of Avila. After a short tourit's off to the private estancia of one of Spain's most famous winemakers, Alejandro Fernandez. Lunch at Dehesa La Granja is a selection of local products from the estate; cheese, ham, olive oil, tempranillo jelly and suckling lamb, all accompanied by Alejandro's wines. We depart for Salamanca and check in to our hotel for the next 2 nights, the Palacio de Castellanos.

Day 3. Leave for the rugged terrain of Arribes to visit British wine maker Charlotte Allen. We enjoy a tour and tasting and lunch in her wine cellar. After lunch we take a boat cruise along the Douro River, where the very steep gorges create a dramatic and hushed environment. Free evening in Salamanca.

Day 4. After breakfast we leave Salamanca for a short drive south to Guijuelo. Our first stop is Simon Martin, a producer of the finest jamón iberico since 1907 and 2012 winner of the best jamón in Spain. We have a tasting of a range of Simon Martin's jamon, chorizo and salchichon. On to Mogarraz to visit La Zorra, a fine winery followed by lunch in the restaurant that owns the bodega. After lunch we go to Extremadura and the historic walled city of Caceres and stay at the Parador.

Day 5. Drive to Merida for a tour of the old Roman city. It's southwards for visit and lunch at the Santa Marina winery, spectacularly located on the site of an old Roman vineyard. Onward to the majestic city of Seville at our hotel for the next two nights, Vincci La Rabida. Orientation walk before free evening.

Day 6. leave for the home of sherry, the town of Jerez de la Frontera. Our first visit is to Lustau, producers of highly rated sherries since 1896. Lustau is known for its "Almacenista" tradition of bottling sherries from small family bodegas in the region and its Solera Reserva range. Visit and tasting at Fernando de Castilla, owned by Jan Pettersen, hailed as one of the champions in the region for producing wines in keeping with the old-fashioned style. Visit the Flamenco Museum. After a short tour of the museum for an introduction into the roots of flamenco we sit down to see a performance of this fascinating art. Jabugo ham tasting and dinner at the historic Taberna del Alabadero

Day 7. Take the high speed AVE back to Madrid. After a gourmet picnic lunch on the train, we check back into the Palacio de Tepa and have an afternoon to explore Madrid. Our last night dinner is a lavish introduction to modern Spanish gastronomy at the elegant Michelin 2 star restaurant El Club Allard.
