

Package of day trips from the Oeania cruise

May 16 - 22, 2020

Trip Itinerary

Day 1. Lisbon, 16th May. Morning walking tour through Belem to take in some of the stunning vistas of the River Tagus and other historical landmarks. Lunch featuring quality Portuguese products and wines at the Lisbon Winery in the vibrant Bairro Alto.

Day 2. Porto, 17th May Morning guided walk around Porto followed by a Colheita tasting at Kopke, the oldest port wine house. Lunch at Graham's Vinum precedes a visit and tasting at the beautifully located Graham's port lodge, with some of the best views of the River Douro and the city.

Day 3. San Sebastian, 20th May Visit to top txakoli producer, Hiruzta. Txakoli is the most Basque of wines, a light spritzy white produced from local grapes grown on hillsides overlooking the Cantabrian Sea in a stunning location and we try some local tuna and anchovies at the tasting.

On to San Sebastian where we enjoy a gourmet pintxos (tapas) tour of the old town, visiting 5 or 6 bars and restaurants to savour modern and traditional style tapas and wines

Day 4. Bordeaux, 21st May Today is Medoc day, where we enjoy the classic cabernet wine country of 2 of the best known communes. We have a morning visit to Chateau Pichon Baron, one of the star wines and most beautiful wineries in Pauillac, followed by a gastronomic lunch at the chateau. We then move on to Chateau Beychevelle, a grand cru winery in neighbouring St Julien and another stunning chateau.

Day 5. Bordeaux, 22nd May Morning visit to Chateau Beausejour Becot a Premier Grand Cru Classe winery. Back to St.Emilion for a walking tour of the historic medieval town, a world heritage site and perhaps the world's most beautiful wine village. We lunch in Chateau Pavie's l'Envers du Decor wine bar in the heart of St Emilion town (or possibly the 2 star Michelin Hostellerie de Plaisance).
